

Jury's recommendation on the award of the Bruno Pontecorvo Prize
for 2017

reported by A. Olshevskiy at the 123rd session of the JINR Scientific Council
22-23 February 2018

The Bruno Pontecorvo Prize is awarded by the Joint Institute for Nuclear Research annually.

The prize was established in 1995 to commemorate Prof. Bruno Pontecorvo a pioneering neutrino physicist who worked for many decades at JINR

The international Jury
composed of the following members:

- |                             |                         |
|-----------------------------|-------------------------|
| Samoil Bilenky       | - JINR           |
| Luciano Maiani       | - Italy          |
| Arthur McDonald      | - Canada         |
| Alexander Olshevskiy | - JINR, Chairman |
| Yoichiro Suzuki      | - Japan          |

has resolved to award the Bruno Pontecorvo Prize
for 2017

to a group of authors including:

Professor FOGLI Gianluigi (Uni and INFN, Bari, Italy)

and

Professor LISI Eligio (INFN, Bari, Italy)

For pioneering contribution to the development of global analysis of neutrino oscillation data from different experiments

I am asking the Scientific Council to approve this recommendation